DISTRICT TEACHERS HERE FOR CONVENTION OCT. 15-16

MISS FRANCES PERKINS
Secretary of Labor in President
Roosevelt's Cabinet.

Believing that they have secured the best talent available for their program, the officers of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association are "all set" for the nineteenth annual meeting of the Association which will be held at the College on October 15-16.

About 1,000 teachers in northwest Missouri are expected to be here for the annual meeting despite the fact that the state teachers' association meeting is to be held in Kansas City this year. The outstanding speaking program that has been prepared by the Association officers is expected to draw many teachers to Maryville for the two-day meeting.

In addition to the regular program for the meeting, the officers and sponsors of the various College organizations have planned many social events for the visitors' entertainment. A cordial welcome to attend the meeting is extended to teachers of the district from officers of the Association and from the entire College.

The first general session of the teachers' meeting will open promptly at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning, October 15. At that session the Honorable Frances Perkins, secretary of labor at Washington, D. C., will speak to the group on the subject, "The Evolution of Social and Welfare Programs." Other speakers of Thursday morn-ing's general session will include the president of the Association, Mr. Fred Keller, superintendent of schools at Tarkio, who will speak on the topic, "My Profession"; and Mr. W. W. New Editorial Staff Elected By Student Senate for Ensuing Year

Beginning a year of many duties pending, the Student Senate, the group of official representatives of the Student Government Association of the College, held its first meeting last Thursday night. At its meeting, it completed the editorial staff of the official news organ of the College, THE NORTHWEST MISSOURIAN, weekly newspaper.

Frederick Schneider of Stanberry, a junior in the College, was appointed by the College to the position of editor-in-chief of the NORTHWEST MISSOURIAN. He acted in that capacity during the past year, and the year before that, wrote a great deal for the College's newspaper. He has had a good deal of experience in different phases of newspaper work, having worked for six years on The Stanberry Headlight, weekly Stanberry paper.

While in high school, he was editor-in-chief of the school news columns for two years. At present, he is a Maryville correspondent for the Kansas City Journal-Post.

Virgil Elliott of Barnard, Mo., a sophomore in the College, was also appointed by the College at the beginning of the fall quarter. He will act in the capacity of associate editor of the MISSOURIAN for the ensuing year. During the past year, Elliott was a constant contributor to the paper, and featured (Continued on page 5)

Bearcats Take Opener At Peru 24-8, Breaking Series of Defeats

Maryville Bearcats opened their football season last Friday evening with an impressive 24 to 8 win over the Peru State Teachers at Peru, Nebraska. It was sweet revenge for the Bearcat eleven as in the years before the Peru Bobcats have always played the boys a close hard game and the last two years the Bearcats suffered defeat at the hands of the Peru Teachers.

Maryville displayed plenty of power for this early in the season. A large factor in the victory was the reserve power of the local boys. The forward wall of the Bearcats out-charged their opponents and were constantly a menace to the Peru backs. Several times they broke through to block kicks and to recover fumbles of the Bobcats.

Flanders, a regular guard, who was unable to start because of a large cut over his eye that he sustained in practice, was replaced by Marion Rogers, freshman, who played outstanding ball for a beginner in his first college game. But from end to end there was plenty of power, both in the regulars and their understudies.

In the backfield "Doc" Yates played a good game that was a bright point throughout the session. His consistent kicking and his gains through the line were strong factors in the Bearcats offense. On the defense he played an outstanding game. Captain Rulon (Continued on page 5) attendance of the student body at the St. Viator vs. Maryville game this evening. So students, let's wait until after the game before going home. Come out to the game with plenty of pep and be ready to cheer the Bearcats on to another victory. Let's all go!

Three Days Were Given Over to Lectures, Discussions, and Entertainment---A. Boyd, Then Superintendent At Albany, Was Elected As the First President

That the great World War was in full swing at the time of the first meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association at the old Normal school is evidenced by the records of war-talk in the addresses given here as well as by the different methods of decorations used, such as the display of American flags and red, white and blue bunting. The first meeting was a three-day convention and met on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 1, 2, and 3, 1917.

A part of every speech given concerned the Great War, according to records written by newspaper scribes of that day and preserved in newspaper files of the old Daily Democrat-Forum. Each speech emphasized steps that each American citizen who was not in France should take, or emphasized certain conservative steps that should have been taken by Americans.

Nearly 400 visiting teachers registered before noon on Thursday, November 1, 1917—the first day of the convention. The morning and noon trains brought into Maryville another hundred and after the last afternoon and evening trains had arrived at Maryville, the total number of visitors had been raised to approximately 500.

The morning of the first day of the first annual meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association was spent in registering, and in witnessing the exhibits in the domestic science and corn show classes which were on display in rooms on the lower floor of the Normal building. The high school and ward schools also entertained large numbers of the visitors during the morning hours of the first day.

Thursday afternoon, business sessions of the Association were begun and a program of speaking was given. The invocation preceding the first general session was given by the Rev. T. A. Wiles, of the Maryville Baptist church, after which Rev. Gilbert S. Cox and the Normal school chorus furnished (Continued on Page 6)

H.S. Football Teams Guests At Game Here

Invitations have been extended to the approximately 60 high school football teams in the Northwest Missouri district to be guests of the College at the football game to be held here Friday night, when the Maryville Teachers will play their first home game, matched against the St. Viator College team from Bourbonnais, Ill.

Mr. H. R. Dieterich, chairman of the High School Athletic Committee, who sent out the invitations, said that each school is entitled to send its football coach and a squad of 16 players. For schools where football is not played, seats will be reserved for 8 men and the coach from their out-door basketball team.

Mr. Dieterich also announced a new good-will policy that will be in effect for the rest of the football season. At certain games, football enthusiasts from specified districts will be admitted to the games upon presentation of tickets which will be sold for 10c. Previous to the games at which they will be honored, the ticket will be sold for that amount, and the money received will be used to pay the amusement taxes, and expenses entailed in the preparation and distribution of the tickets.

Following is a list of the home games at which the policy will be in effect, and counties where tickets will be distributed for each of the games.

October 3rd, St. Viator game Nodaway, Atchison, Gentry, Worth and Andrew counties.

October 30th, Warrensburg game. Buchanan, Caldwell, Clinton, Daviess, DeKalb, Harrison and Mercer counties.

November 13th, Cape Girardeau game. Grundy, Livingston, Ray, Carroll, Clay and Platte counties.

75-Piece District Band At Meeting

Two programs will be presented by an 75-piece band at the nineteenth annual meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers association to be held at the College on October 15-16, according to Mr. LaVerne E. Irvine, chairman of the College department of music and who will direct the all-district band. The band will be made up of high school musicians from over the entire district.

Invitations have been sent to all of the high schools in the district asking that they send representatives to the band. Seventy-five will be chosen to play on the band's program here.

Replies have been received from the following schools planning to be represented here: Lathrop, Westboro, King City, Craig, Richmond, Hamilton, Guilford, Fairfax, Rosendale, Bethany, Gower, Barnard, Princeton, Mound City, Trenton, Jamesport and Ridgeway. A number of schools have not as yet answered their invitations, so there will be other schools represented.

Rehearsals of the band will be held at the College gymnasium on Thursday, October 15, at 9 o'clock in the morning and at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The band will appear on the program at 7:45 Thursday evening and at 8:30 Friday morning in the College auditorium.

Compositions to be played by the band will include a modernized arrangement by Collet of the melodies of Stephen Collins Foster; "Finlandia," by Sibilius; a special arrangement of melodies of Rinsky-Korsakoff; a medley of Victor Herbert's numbers; and a few of the famous marches of John Philip Sousa, one of which will be "Invincible Eagle" which is one of his best marches, but which is not so well-known as others.

The district high school band is sponsored by the Northwest Missouri Teachers association which believes the activity a valuable experience for the young people of various communities who cooperate in a project of this kind. In addition to serving as a cultural asset and a musical stimulate, it is socially desirable because the boys and girls have an opportunity of meeting students from other schools. They have many memorable experiences here, an illustration of which is the fact that last year the band played on the same program with Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, who is now deceased, but whom band members will never forget.

THE TEACHERS' MEETING

The nineteenth annual meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association will be held at the College on Friday and Saturday, October 15-16. On these two days, approximately 1,000 teachers will attend sessions of the meeting, teachers from schools from all over northwest Missouri.

It is indeed fortunate that meetings such as are held each year by the Association are held at the College here in Maryville—an easily-reached location for teachers of all schools in the district. Two main highways and two railroads enter Maryville, and these agencies afford ample means for reaching the city.

For the past nineteen years, the officers of the Association have striven to secure the best in talent for the programs. Outstanding speakers from all parts of the nation have been engaged by the officers, and these speakers have been experts in many different fields in addition to educational fields. Much has been derived by teachers attending the outstanding lectures of the past nineteen years.

This year, as far as an outstanding program is concerned, will be one of the banner years in the Association's history. A most distinguished group of speakers has been engaged by the officers of this year and a great amount of information is to be gained by those attending the nineteenth annual meeting. Heading the list of speakers is the Honorable Frances Perkins, secretary of labor in President Roosevelt's cabinet, a life-long worker in welfare and social fields.

Just what Miss Perkins and the other notable speakers will impart here on Thursday and Friday, October 15 and 16, remains to be known, but in view of their successful pasts and by being in their present positions, we have ample opportunity to speculate that their thoughts and words will be of wisdom and of an educational nature.

It is true that teachers or persons in other professions derive the greatest amount of their knowledge and technique in preparing for their professions from the classrooms and laboratories, but it is also true that such addresses that we shall hear at the College on the two days of teachers' meeting will serve to a great extent in extending and enriching our cultural lives. Experiences of those persons who "have seen the sea" in their respective fields and related to those assembled in the sessions of the teachers' meeting will be of the greatest of value to members of the Association.

Teachers will benefit not only from the lectures given during the meeting, but also from splendid music and round table discussions being planned by the Association's officers.

Through the generosity of the members of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers Association, students in the College will be permitted to share with the teachers the many benefits to be derived from the meeting.

This newspaper takes this opportunity, on behalf of the College, to invite the members of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers Association and

EDUCATION FOR LEISURE

One of the far-reaching effects of modern inventions is the great amount of time they have released for leisure-time activities. At the beginning of the Industrial Revolution it was not uncommon for people to work twelve, fourteen, and even sixteen hours a day.

Today, however, the eight-hour day is accepted as a matter of course in most of our industries; while the six-hour day and the thirty-hour week are being seriously thought of as "just around the corner."

This added time for leisure offers a tremendous challenge to our schools, for the job of training folks for the worthwhile use of leisure time will fall upon the educators. This is a responsibility that we cannot shirk, and we see no reason why we should try to shirk it, for we have not truly educated a person until we have provided for his leisure-time activities, as well as his other needs.

Folks have to be taught how to enjoy leisure, for there are no instincts nor inborn tendencies to guide them in this matter. On every hand we see people live cramped and starved lives because they do not know what to do with their leisure. They have eyes, but they see not; they have ears, but they hear not. Even the possession of wealth is no criteria that they know how to enjoy life, although a more equitable distribution of this world's goods would most certainly be a long step in the enrichment of human life.

So much time and money are wasted in recreation that does not make for happiness and true enjoyment. As the poet says:

"At the devil's booth are all things sold,
Each ounce of dross costs its ounce of gold;
For a cap and bells our lives we pay,
Bubbles we buy with a whole soul's tasking."

Through play and wholesome recreation the child can be socialized, can learn how to get along with others, and how to cooperate effectively without friction. This is of inestimable value in whatever walk of life the child may find itself in later life.

Moral character can be developed through the proper use of leisure time. But it cannot be taught, it must be caught. The personality of the teacher is the important factor here.

In every community the schools should be a center where young people can enjoy wholesome recreation in their leisure time. We know today that there is no such thing as a "born criminal"—he is a product of his social environment. We also know that practically every adult criminal started out as a juvenile delinquent. Through a supervised recreation program most of them could have been saved. Since the CCC came into existence, delinquency among young men has been cut fifty per cent, because the leisure time has been taken care of by worthwhile activities.

Leisure-time activities can be the medium through which young people can develop an appreciation for the best in music, art, and literature. Why should they be satisfied to waste their time on dross, when there is so much pure gold to be had for the asking? Why listen to jazz, when real music can be heard by simply giving the dial a turn? Why read worthless trash when good reading is available in every library?

Our educational system falls down if it does not develop a taste and appreciation for the best in life, for man does not live by bread alone (nor does woman either for that matter!). We may not be able to enjoy the world's best literature in the original but we have a rich heritage in our own language; while the music and art of the world knows no national boundaries—they belong to everyone who has developed a sense of appreciation.

An understanding of foreign cultures can be developed through reading as well as through travel. International good will then will take the place of a narrow, provincial nationalism; worldmindedness will displace Chauvinism and Jingoism. If leisure-time activities include the best in literature, art, and music, bigotry and prejudice will give way to understanding and appreciation of other peoples.

It has been said that we have learned to fly in the air like birds; we have learned to go through the water like fish; but we have not learned to live like men. Perhaps through the training in leisure-time activities we shall be able to remedy this and point the way to a happier and more satisfying life.

Garth Sharp Chosen Head of Sophomores

Garth Sharp of Craig, Mo., was elected president of the sophomore class at a meeting of that group following the weekly assembly Wednesday morning. Officers of the sophomore class had been nominated one week previous.

Jack Wright of Gower, Mo., was elected vice-president of the class of second year students, and Ethel Hester of Mound City was elected secretary, and Dolores Messner of Albany was elected treasurer.

Bill Maloy of Redding, Ia., was elected by the sophomores to the two-term Student Senate, a position left vacant by Eleanor Taylor, who is not enrolled in the College this year.

The senior class in its meeting chose Mr. Roy Ferguson, assistant business manager of the College, as social sponsor for the class during this year.

Students in the College will elect cheer leaders to serve for the ensuing year at a meeting of the Student Government Association next Wednesday morning following the regular assembly, according to an announcement made this week by Vernon (Bud) Green,

NEW ROADWAY

BY LORACE CATTERSON

In places, life and the times of the mud turtle go on. At this College only life goes on; gone is the mud of the turtle; a concrete statement backed by a new limestone gravel on the College drive. All of which paves the way for a big year at the Super Traffic Center.

No longer must one park one's car a block away from the administration building and walk through the slop and slush to make a dirty appearance in floor-mudded classrooms. Mid-spring slogging is gone from the eternal verities. A hard surface road is a solid reality. Where there were muds, now floats a ribbon of smooth white gravel, looping the campus with automobile delight. Any old car will do to ride this white river with. Then too, any old fellow, for it is particularly banked along the sides for one-armed night drivers.

MARYVILLE, MISSOURI

LET'S GO, BEARCATS!

Tonight on the College field, the Maryville Bearcats meet an eleven from St. Viator's college in Bourbonnais, Illinois in the first home football encounter of the season. We have seen the Bearcats in practice sessions all fall, and now is our first chance to see the 1936 team in real intercollegiate competition.

And now, that same old story—

Each and every student in the College who is physically able should be in attendance at this game tonight. A team plays the actual physical game out on the field it is true, but the moral assistance from the student body behind that team inspires its members more than anyone can express, verbally.

There is surely not one person connected with the College who would not like to see the Bearcats put the College on the athletic map this season, and the cooperation of each and every person in this institution is required for them to do so.

The Maryville team won its first game of the season at Peru, Nebraska last Friday, and, incidentally, it was the only M.I.A.A. conference team that was victorious last week-end. Other conference teams, playing non-conference games, lost their respective encounters.

This newspaper will continue, this year, its policy of backing the Bearcats teams in every sport, and also its policy of urging students, faculty and townspeople to back the teams.

LET'S GO, BEARCATS! !

Bearcats Meet St. Viator Squad Tonight

Illinois Visitors Will Confront Eleven Men Who Already Have Tasted Victory

The Bearcats will play their first home game on the College field tonight, when they meet the strong St. Viator College team from Baurbonnas, Ill.

St. Viator College is an institution of young men having an enrollment of some 300 students. They play in the Little Nineteen Conference in Illinois.

After winning their first game by an easy margin the Bearcats move into their second game with a little more experience and more confidence.

Coach Davis let those who played most of the Peru game rest on Monday, but hard drill started again on Tuesday, and every member has been working hard to win a berth on the starting eleven.

This will be the second game between these two teams and both will be trying hard to win. The first game played last fall ended in a 7 to 7 tie, with the Bearcats outgaining their opponents, only to be tied in the last quarter of the ball game.

Coaches Davis and Stalcup have been putting much time on pass defense drill this week after the poor showing of the Bearcats in that phase of the game last week.

With no major injuries sustained in their victory over Peru, and with several of those who were injured back and ready to play, there is little doubt but that the Bearcats will make a good showing.

Since Coach Davis took a 62 man squad on his first trip, there has been much talk of the great strength of the Bearcat team. However, with so many inexperienced men on the squad, little can be said of the strength of the team, until after several games are played. The large squad has made every man work harder to hold his position, and some work harder to gain a better position.

This will be the first opportunity for many of us to see the Bearcats in action, and as it is High School Day, there should be a large crowd on hand to cheer for the Bearcats.

As yet there has been no starting lineup for the game, however, it is most likely the Bearcats will be represented with the following men when the starting whistle blows:

Wallace Hicks and Don Francis, ends; Jack Claybaugh and Ed Molitoris, tackles; Glen Rouse and Marion Rogers, guards; Evert Richards center; with a backfield composed of Walter Rulon, Wilbur Moore, Walter Moore, and Arthur Yates.

Bearcats Take First Game of the Season

scored two of the touchdowns for the locals and his prospect for another successful season looks good. The Moore combination—Wilbur and Walter—looked good as they received passes and slipped away for considerable gains.

With plenty of aerial practice this coming week the Bearcats should have a well balanced attack to throw at the invading St. Viator team this evening. So let the student body back the team with every bit of spirit possible.

Trip to Peru and Wait At the Ferry

"The longest way 'round is the shortest way home." This axiom was chosen by part of the MST football squad as they discussed the trip in the dressing room at Peru, Nebraska last Friday night after the 24 to 8 lacing their opponents received had been discussed.

Deciding to save expense and time, the football coaches chose the short cut over the Missouri River by way of Brownville Ferry instead of the longer trip by Nebraska City. The Dodge bus had a half-hour start over the slower Buick, but the ferry proved too slow for the sudden traffic and both groups, together with several cars transporting players met at the river. The ferry, named the "Spirit of Brownville," loaded the Dodge, four cars, and their occupants and started the grind across the "Yellow Waters." In approximately forty-five minutes it was back to load the Buick and three cars and the riders of each. The loss of a few blades on the water wheel and a sand bar in the center of the river caused another slow trip.

A hump-back bridge over a small branch that empties into the Missouri reached too high on the Buick and jerked the mechanism loose on the brakes. This caused a slow ride from the river to Peru, and Coach Davis had the first quarter nearly over before Coach Stalcup and his boys arrived. The boys acted on the coach's advice and "got in there in time to beat them to death."

In spite of the long drive, Ted Adkins, the college mechanic, didn't see much of the game. He worked while the game was played, and by the time the final whistle blew the brakes were again in good order. The thoughts of past performances caused the occupants of the Buick and many of the cars to come home by Nebraska City.

Coach Stalcup sent one of the Maryville backs into the game with this instruction, "Get some drive in there! You fellows look like the Spirit of Brownville." The back evidently considered the remark as uncomplimentary as the next play resulted in a substantial gain.

Regardless of the difficulties that were encountered, the squad enjoyed the trip. Few had ever seen a ferry and fewer had ridden on one. The general opinion was that crossing by this means is lots of fun if traffic is not too heavy.

New Editorial Staff Elected By Senate

ture writing was his principal undertaking.

Mary Ann Bovard of Maryville, a sophomore in the College, was elected by the Senate to the position of society editor for the NORTHWEST MISSOURIAN. Miss Bovard has had a great deal of journalistic experience, having assisted with publications at Maryville high school. She plans to make journalism her profession and plans to attend the Journalism school of the University of Missouri at Columbia for further study. Her society editorial duties begin with this week's edition of the MISSOURIAN. She is a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha, social sorority.

Justin O. King of Cameron, Mo., was reelected by the Senate to the position of sports editor of the MISSOURIAN. He acted in that capacity last year, and in years before that, he was a constant contributor of sports to the paper. While in high school, King was interested in and worked with periodicals and publications of the Cameron school. While his duties begin officially with this week's edition, he has handled the sports department of this paper for the first two weeks of this year's paper.

DOPE BUCKET

By JUSTIN O. KING

Kirkville states that the Bearcats are the dark horses of the 1936 season. Not picking any dark horses, just the lead horse will do for time. After all, we have heard of the hard luck and trouble the Bulldogs have had, it sure looks bad for them. They have 8 men on the injured list—and several more who are just able to attend practice.

Two new men are back, Nate Ware, letterman center from last year and Parsons, veteran tackle of '34 season, and their injured list does not include any of the stars of last season.

I too feel sorry for the Bulldogs; they play the Missouri B team this week.

Cape Girardeau—I will not say anything about the Indians except they seem to have a very bad time explaining the loss of their first game to Hendrix college, of Conway, Ark. The NORTHWEST MISSOURIAN said some considered the game a setup for the Indians. I disagree.

This week Cape is playing one of the hardest games in the conference—in fact it is so hard that I doubt if they even have a chance. With Kirkville playing the B team, well, Missouri has to send some of their men to Kirkville, but brother Don probably will see the that Cape is badly beaten if it is possible.

Springfield and the Miami Junior college tied 6 and 6. Again, I say, the Bears will be hard to beat when they get to the conference—at least they are not telling everyone of their hard luck.

Springfield will play Tahlequah Teachers at Springfield today, and I personally pick the Tahlequah Teachers.

Warrensburg made errors this week to lose their game. Kansas Wesleyan repeated and capitalized on these errors to win—29 to 7. However, the Mules showed they had a little power when they carried the ball 60 yards to their touchdown. I take the Mules over Central college this week.

Rolla played the toughest team on their schedule for a beginning game and lost it 31 to 18, but they showed they had some power by scoring three touchdowns. Two of these counters came on passes.

It is interesting to watch for the outcome of the Miner-Indian squabble. Cape claims Rolla said they were paying their football players, and in answering, Cape said they had the fewest freshmen football players of anyone in the conference. They also made it very clear that they had none from more than 40 miles from home.

Young Giant Here for Basketball Play

One of the brightest prospects for the Bearcats in the coming basketball season is found in a boy that hails from "way down south" in Columbus, Georgia, Ike Howell. Ike stands six feet ten inches, weighs 225 pounds, and he should not have any trouble in controlling the tip-offs at the center position in the MIAA conference games.

Ike has seen four years of competition at the Industrial high school in Columbus, Georgia.

First District Meet Drew 500 Teachers

The address of the afternoon was given by Mr. H. B. Wilson, superintendent of schools of Topeka, Kansas. A large number of the visiting pedagogues heard Mr. Wilson's address.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in committee meetings where officers for the following year were nominated and "other routine matters attended to."

Mr. Cameron Harmon, president of the Missouri Wesleyan College at Cameron, Mo., was the principal speaker of Thursday evening, and music for the evening's session was furnished by the first term public school music class of the Normal school.

Following Mr. Harmon's address, a reception for the visiting teachers was held in the Library of the old Normal. Patriotic decorations lent color to the scene of the reception. In the large east window of the Library were pictures of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and Woodrow Wilson, around which were inscribed these words, "Unity, Liberty, These Three With the American Teacher." Above all, American flags and red, white and blue bunting was draped here and there throughout the reception hall. In front of the windows was a table banked with white chrysanthemums. Tiny flags shaded the lights.

Punch was served by a bevy of Normal school girls to all guests present and music was furnished throughout the evening by the Normal school orchestra.

On Friday morning, November 2, 1917—the second day of the first annual meeting of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association—sectional meetings for high school teachers, and elementary grade school and rural school teachers were held, beginning at 9 o'clock. That afternoon, commencing at 1:30 o'clock, two solos were sung by Mrs. F. P. Robinson. Her numbers were "Goodbye, Summer," by Lynes, and "In an Old Fashioned Town," by Squires.

Mr. I. I. Cammack, superintendent of the Kansas City public schools, gave the principal address of the afternoon session. Following his address, meetings of county groups arranged by county superintendents were held.

Two selections by the Maryville Conservatory of Music were presented at Friday evenings session. Marcus Neilsen sang "Bird of the Wilderness," by Hornsman, and W. Anton Blaaha played "Ballade et Pollanaise," a piano solo by Vieuxtemps.

Miss Hattie M. Anthony, chairman of the home economics department of the College and who was on the faculty of the Normal school at that time, addressed the group at the Friday evening session. Following her talk, the Honorable P. G. Holden, hog expert from Chicago, Ill., gave the principal address of the evening session.

Maryville's Normal gridsters, poor souls, lost the first "Homecoming" game to Tarkio college that Friday night by a score of 74-0, before the largest crowd of the season and in the game which meant more than any other to the Maryville fans. The Tarkio team was a much lighter team, according to the Daily Democrat-Forum, and it continued that "the only thing that kept the score from going higher was the provision in the rules that the game shall continue for only an hour."

The closing sessions of the Association's meeting were held Saturday morning, November 3, 1917, when reports of the committees and organization for the following year was the order of business. At nine o'clock that morning, a girls' double trio from the State Normal school here presented two musical selections, "Morn Rise," by Czibulka, and "Roses Everywhere," by Denza.

Reports of the committees and organization for the following year were then made, following which was an address by the Honorable P. C. Holden of Chicago.

The afternoon session of the last day's meeting comprised of a round table discussion led by the Honorable P. G. Holden, and that meeting was open to farmers, their wives, teachers of the public schools and citizens in general. That round table discussion had much to do with the increased production of food stuffs during the World War days.

The Democrat-Forum carried the following list of 1916 officers: president, A. Boyd of Albany; first vice-president, George H. Beasley of Liberty; second vice-president, S. E. Davis of Maryville; third vice-president, Nelle K. Sutton of Bethany; secretary, C. A. Hawkins of Maryville; treasurer, Elizabeth Brainerd of Trenton. The executive committee consisted of the following: one year, W. R. Lowry of Grant City; two years, J. M. Gallagan of Chillicothe and three years, E. L. Birkhead of Gower.

The visiting teachers were warm in their praise of the treatment received during their stay and took an unusual interest in the sessions of the Association. With war problems being a part of almost every talk heard, and discussions of how best to cooperate with the government, the results of the first three-day meeting proved far-reaching, indeed.

College Student Wins

Robert Mitchell, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mitchell of Skidmore carried away the awards for second place in the Black Angus division of the Nodaway county Baby Beef show held last Saturday in a tent near the football grounds.

Not only did Robert win in the county but last Friday he won first prize in the 4-H show held at Skidmore, with his brother Harry Jr., coming close behind to take second honors.

There were twenty-seven calves, ranging in weight from 900 to 1,100 pounds, shown here on the campus, with three divisions which were: Angus, Hereford, and Short-horn. The awards of grand champion of the entire group was taken by Buster Simmons from Paruell.

In asking Robert Mitchell what he attributed his success to he replied in one word: "Experience." "I've been in the 4-H work for seven years," he said, "and I've won something every year."

Injured In Fall

Miss Margaret Stephenson, dean of women's activities, was compelled to miss several days of school this week because of an injury which she received last Friday afternoon. As she was descending the steps from the second to the first floor of the administration building, she tripped, throwing her body forward in such a way as to dislocate a right hip bone. She was taken to her room at Residence Hall and was given treatment by Dr. F. R. Anthony, College physician.

Dad's Day is Planned to Be Staged Oct. 30

The Student-Faculty Dad's Day Committee at its first meeting last Wednesday afternoon set the official day for "Dad's Day" this year for October 30. This is the day that Warrensburg comes to the College football field and it will offer the Dads who have sons in this game to find out whether or not their boys really know the game.

There will be a special assembly on this day for the Dads after which will follow the luncheon at the Residence Hall. Guides composed of members of the Dad's Day Committee will welcome the visitors and show them places of interest around the campus. Fathers will also be invited to attend the classes of the students.

The committee in charge of Registration and Visiting Classes is composed of: Chairman, Mary Peck, Josephine Nash, Mary Louise Lyle, Leslie Carlson, Chester Smith, Alex Sawyer with Miss White and Mr. Somerville as faculty sponsors.

The Assembly Program committee is composed of: chairman, Lorace Catterton, Marian Maloy, Mary E. Meadows, Margaret Porter, and Dr. Alexander as sponsor.

The Publicity committee is in charge of Virgil Elliott with Helen Gough, Mary Harmon, and Henry Robinson, and Mr. Cooper as advisor.

Elizabeth Wright is in charge of the Luncheon Program committee with Ermin Brown, Martha Mae Holmes and Miss Helwig. The Luncheon Menu, and Decoration committee is headed by Maxine Daniels, with Edwardena Harrison, Elizabeth Turner, and Miss Anthony as her helpers.

The committee in charge of the Afternoon Activities is, Gara Williams, chairman, Elizabeth Adams, Derotha Davis, William Bills, and Miss Stephenson.

These committees are composed of a Dad's Day Faculty group and two representatives from each organization on the campus. The different committees will all meet together Tuesday of next week at 4:00 o'clock to give a report of their group.

Student YMCA Meet

The student YMCA met last Tuesday evening in the Social Hall where the president Alex Sawyer gave a report of his trip last week to the Kansas City Minister's Conference. Mr. Sawyer made the trip with Rev. E. L. Ervin, pastor of the First Baptist church; and Dr. Winfield Scott Insley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

A brief devotional period was held with Virgil Elliott reading the scripture and Henry Robinson giving the invocation. At the close of the meeting Dr. Dildine pronounced the benediction.

It was necessary to fill two offices of the organization because of the resignation of Raymond Harris as treasurer, and in the absence of Paul Hauber as secretary. Virgil Elliott of Barnard was elected to fill the office of Treasurer, and Myron Simerly of St. Joseph as Secretary.

The YMCA membership committee met Wednesday and are laying out plans for a membership drive. The YMCA is very interested that the student YMCA reorganize itself upon the campus. At the present there seems to be no movement in the direction of its reorganization.

Music Instructors In Program At Assembly

Members of the Conservatory of Music faculty were presented at the assembly Wednesday morning held in the College auditorium. The student body was given the opportunity to hear Miss Marian Kerr, piano instructor, Mr. H. N. Schuster, voice instructor and Miss Aileen Fentress, violinist.

Miss Kerr, first to appear on the platform, played two numbers by Debussy, "La Fille aux Cheveux de Lin," and "Nocturne."

Mr. Schuster sang three old favorites to the great enjoyment of the audience. He sang first the humorous "American Lullaby," by Rick, and then the lovely song, "I Dream of Jeanie," by Foster, and last, the forceful Negro lyric, "Gwine to Hebb'n," by Wolfe.

The new violin instructor, Miss Fentress, played to a very appreciative audience who insisted upon an encore. Her first number was "Kuiwiak" by Wieniawski, followed by the haunting "London-derry Air," arranged by Kreisler, and the lively "Scherzo" by Van-Geene. She played as an encore "Mighty Lak a Rose" by Carrie Jacobs Bond.

Miss Viola Johnson, a former student of the College who is teaching in Farragut, Iowa, spent the week-end visiting friends in Residence Hall.

The Stroller

Miller Weeda, who is your new dancing partner? Cute.

Liz Wright is back at her old tricks; she keeps the b. f. from the city in hitch, so they tell me.

If Marian Kirk got a letter from her boy friend in Hopkins, and the letter was post-marked Maryville, what would you think? Personally, I believe its just a blonde who don't have to be in at ten-thirty.

Lynn Bickett don't like Walter Wade's pick of girls, especially those that come from the Newman Club.

Did you know we had a second "Bing" amongst us? Pierce Gardner was in K. C. last weekend and he sang "Lost" with the orchestra at the Grill. And so they say, it was very good.

Millie, the new b. f. is quite nice, and he is a very good dancer. Did you tell me right that his name is Gene and he is from Shan?

Mary Ann, it is Bovard with the accent on the Bo, regardless of what you have to say. When you were a little girl in high school, it was Bo-vard, but since you're the Sigma Tau "Sweetie," it's Bov-ard. Oh, well, you're still Bo-vard to me, even if you did go to California once.—Flash! Mary Ann just informed me that she is all cured over Paul Allen, the old Plattsburg boy is the best.

Today we see that Betty was in town, and did she ever look neat all dressed up! School teaching must agree with her.

Dorothy Grey Wort, don't you know a beer parlor from a drug store?

Zuch, didn't you know Shorty was married and that that cute little girl in his place of business is his wife?

Bill Blagg kinda cut out Bob Kennaugh. Betty McGee goes for Pontiacs, not model T's.

Funny how Gladys Miller looks around so much for new material with Al Myers sitting right beside her.

Waterman, did you know that you were a bright little boy in accounting 21a?

Jeep Keiffer is haunting the campus again with his permanent; he figures all the girls will go with or for him. He said to me the other day "with my hair and Fluppy's brains, we should be able to rate."

Overheard on west Ninth street at 8:30 Wednesday eve. If these upperclassmen think they are going to burn my cap, they'll have to catch me. Friends in the upper-classes, that is a mark against our reputation, let us rise up in revolt!

Mable Barrett was seen in the Corner Drug with Fred Davison last week. Better watch that Skimore boy friend, pal.

At last even Little Ike Howell loafed at the Coffee Shop. Almost all of the bunch is there now. Ike plays with the radio cause he don't have to look up to dial it like his friend, Zuch, would. Even the ex-football hero, Moore, was there.

The "DON JAUN" blood in "Little Doe" Wilson is coming to the front again over at the dorm about every night. Must be looking for another blonde.

How about Vivian Froyd telling Lyne Bickett that she would scream and then didn't. Tsh! Tsh!

Fellow students if you haven't seen Mason much this year—well she now has her jeweled frat pin and has almost retired from circulation.

Lucy Mae, do you know that you have two shadows? Durwood Maxted and Walter Wade. They sure keep tab on you, during the day and night.

Notice to all commerce students. Bucks and dollars are the same thing.

D. Davis really rates, the up-town boy with the big long car is really a catch, really.

Wynn Duncan really went to town Saturday night out at the dorm signing the girls in. Tried to help Buss Daniel do her washing; up at the skating rink where he hugged Lucy Mae; and then he went to the show and slept all through it. What a night for "Dunkie."

"Old love is the best love", cause Katy Carlton seems to be doing quite well with her ex-boy friend.

"Too bad boys, I told you all wrong. Clark is coming down this week-end, but he won't come down every week-end." This was part of the conversation I overheard between Durine Riddle and some boys whose names I wouldn't dare publish.

The Great Neil has stepped out in society again and, as usual, they were "Freshies". Hersh always did like 'em young so he could use his old saying "Get 'em young, treat 'em rough and tell 'em nothing."

Now isn't there enough chairs at the Barkatze meeting for everyone to have one or does Sue Brown just have to sit on Jim Well's lap?

I wonder why Martha May gave such an outburst in the Dad's Day Committee meeting Wednesday evening when an instructor mentioned Barnard. It might be very difficult to figure out.

Andy Campbell is hitting the Old Ox Road Again pretty hard this year. With the payments on the Ford coming in and with a lass by the name of Walker, he ought to have a fair social year.

Arlene Finn and Katy Bermond better get acquainted with their own rooming house. For there was the wrong house, the wrong room and almost the wrong bed. Such things these "Freshies" do.

Miss Fentress New Instructor In Music

A delightful addition to the College faculty this year may be found in the person of Miss Ailene Fentress, who comes to the College from the demonstration school of George Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee, where she received her Bachelor of Science degree last year.

Miss Fentress is a graduate of Ward-Belmont school for girls at Nashville, majoring in violin and piano. She went from there to New York City to study with Leopold Auer, but soon returned to Ward Belmont as a teacher of the violin and piano. Her work with stringed instruments at this place was outstanding. She had an ensemble of thirty-five strings at Ward Belmont.

During her teaching at Ward Belmont, Miss Fentress became concert master of the Tennessee Philharmonic orchestra.

Miss Fentress left her teaching to study with Dr. Erick Soranten, Vienesse violinist composer who is an instructor in the Chicago Musical college. Dr. Soranten gave a delightful concert in the College auditorium during the past summer session.

Miss Fentress is preparing her Master's thesis at this College at present. The subject of her thesis is "Correlating Violin and Piano for the Elementary Schools."

While in Chicago, Miss Fentress was staff soloist for radio station W S M.

Miss Fentress had the following to say concerning her first impressions of the College in an interview with a Missourian reporter this week: "I have been so busy since my arrival in Maryville that my impressions have had little time to crystalize, but when they do I am sure they will be happy."

Miss Claudia Swinford, a former student, was visiting friends in the Hall Saturday.

WAA Camping Trip Yields Good Stories

The WAA women and guests reported having a grand camping trip Tuesday evening at the girl scout camp south east of Maryville.

Lucy Mae Benson lived up to her name as being an excellent fire builder. Lucy Mae was not cold but Margaret Smith was, in fact, she woke everyone in the camp at 3:00 a. m. and told them about it. Lucy Mae also had another purpose in building the fire—Rebecca Foley had icicles on her cot, which had to be melted off.

Lucy Mae added another title to her name as being a milkmaid. Dorothy Wort had trouble with her car. It seems she locked it from the inside and had to have a mechanic to unlock it.

There was a girl there by the name of Hazel Lewis, who has an odd way of spelling owl. If anyone is interested they might ask her about her unusual vocabulary.

One of the "old" WAA members, Elizabeth Wright, was the first to bed. Liz was a brave gal, though, because she got up 30 minutes after going to bed and roasted marshmallows for an hour.

A wee freshman, Dolores Balin, talked in her sleep. She kept saying "Tut, Tut". It must have been something she ate.

Norma Ruth Logan, as usual, was gold-digging—in empty boxes after pop corn, she said.

Beatrice Leeson, was initiated into the organization.

Those who were present on the camping trip were: Esther Spring, Dorothy Wort, Lucy Mae Benson, Elizabeth Wright, Emma Jean Corrington, Marjorie Schneider, Hazel Lewis, Beatrice Leeson, Dolores Bolin, Roberta Craig, Margaret Smith, Rebecca Foley, Norma Ruth Logan, Irene Bohnenblust, Bonnie McFall, Miss Haggerty and Miss Waggoner.

Along with the more serious events scheduled for teacher's meeting is planned a homecoming dance. The opportunity for diversion offered by the Student Senate is not expected to be overlooked by visiting teachers.

Plans are being made to entertain a large crowd in the West Library, Thursday night, Oct. 15. The Social Committee has promised a floor show as a feature of the evening. The dance will begin shortly after the speaker in the auditorium has finished, in the West Library.

Parents In Meeting With Grade Teachers

At a meeting in Social hall last Friday afternoon, mothers of children enrolled in the first three grades of the College elementary school were introduced to the teachers of these classes. The meeting was presided over by Miss Chloe Millikan, chairman of the primary education department.

The first instructor to be introduced was Mr. H. T. Phillips, chairman of the elementary school. In a short talk, he expressed the thanks to the parents for their co-operation with the elementary teachers.

Dr. F. R. Anthony, College physician, was introduced to the group and gave a short address on the importance of health in the schools.

Following their introductions, Miss Alline Fentress, instructor of piano and violin in the College Conservatory of Music, and Miss Eilene Logan, instructor of physical education, gave short talks explaining of what their work would consist.

President Uel W. Lamkin gave the closing address in which he explained that the elementary grades were the heart of the College and he expressed his thanks to the parents for their help in furthering the development of these classes.

THE NORTHWEST MISSOURIAN press club will meet hereafter in Recreation Hall on Monday afternoons at 4 o'clock instead of Friday afternoons, as has been the practice in the past. All members of the staff whose names appear in the list of contributors are expected to attend the meetings.
